

TRAMPLE THE SERPENT

Luke 10:19 I have given you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy, nothing will harm you

Lord,

In Luke you tell me I have been given the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy... all by the blood of Jesus. You say nothing by any means shall hurt me. Thank you God that when it feels complicated, you make it simple. You sent the Prince of Peace and exalted Him giving Him the name above all names - the name of power, authority, and love. May my knees bow down and tongue confess...JESUS IS LORD! He will defeat the enemy and crush his attempts of attack on my life. Thank you for giving me the power of your spirit to stand strong in confidence. I pray you surround me with protection. In Revelation...the woman was protected because you gave her two wings of the great eagle. I pray boldly, God, because you say I can, please pour out your grace and mercy upon me. You are an amazing God and you have covered me with your feathers and my love can not say enough thanks. Lord if you see fit, give me wings, let me fly, let me look from above down at the enemy you have hurled out of heaven... from a place, where for the amount of time you have decided, he can't reach me. Thank you Lord is all I have and it is not enough of a word to cover the gratitude for all you have done, but I offer it, on my knees, with a humble heart and bowed head. I pray in Jesus' name, Amen.
